“ To the Rizer Family:It is truly sad to lose a dear loved one in death. Nothing can be as painful as this loss. Yet our heavenly Father wants to comfort those who grieve and encourages others to do the same. With the passing of time some measure of relief comes, but our Creator guarantees more than that. Because we were made to want to live forever, he will one day resurrect all those in the grave back to life. (Acts 24:15)What a wonderful time that will be when all who love each other can experience a life of true peace and security along with endless life on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43)
