“ We have lived next door to the Tatta's for over 25 years. We spoke many times down through those years about our kids, family, the weather and yes even the farm animals especially the goats that kept getting out or heads hung in fence "I think she disliked them the most". Mrs Joyce was very talkative about Joe and their children until just a couple years ago when the dreaded disease came upon her and I noticed she very seldom waved and when she was outside she didn't recognize me.

Then joe and I talked and I understood why, my prayers then was for joe and strength to be the help Mrs Joyce needed, now my prayers are for all the family to be the help that each other need to get through this time in their lives and know that Mrs Joyce was a strong woman who loved each one of them and will be greatly missed.
