“ I am still in shock about the passing of Grandma. She never gave up on loving me and my three brothers. She had called us her own even though we weren't blood related. She had taught me that blood doesn't make a family love does. She was very supportive of me and what I wanted in my life. She had moved to Georgia and that was one of the hardest things that I had to go to. I always enjoyed going to her house on the weekends. She spoiled us just like every grandparent does. Making sure that I was well fed before I went home to my parents. She has taught me some important life values that I will use for the rest of my life. Because of her I always had a reason to have a smile on my face. Even after my parents got the divorce she was still active in my life. She would send Christmas cards and birthday cards which proves to me again how much she loved me and my brothers unconditionally. I have one big regret that will haunt me for the rest of my life. I have always talked about going out to Georgia to go visit her after I had graduated high school. I haven't seen her for 6 years and I wont let that go. I love you grandma and I miss you terribly.

“ What can I say about Judy? There's so much I can say so where do I start? Well I met Judy about 5 or 6 years ago when my family and I got stationed here at MCLB Albany GA. I quickly became friends with her daughter Kat after meeting her and then after a while Judy, who became "mom" to me and grandma to my kids, came into our lives. She has always been so kind and loving to us and opened her home up for holiday dinners, birthday celebrations, coffee and conversations. She may not have been blood but she sure was family to us. Being a military family that we are, we are always far away from our family back home so we have created our own families at many different duty stations we have been and Judy and her family here have become a part of ours. She was a one of a kind person who loved everyone and everyone loved her. I am going to miss her tremendously. She will always have a special place in my heart and I will take with me all the love and memories that we have shared. I know one thing for sure is that she is looking down and saying "hey whatcha all cryin for? I'm still here and look I'm free!" I just know it! Hey Momma Judy...wish we could have had you longer. I love you infinity and I will see you later! While you are up there give my mom a kiss for me.

“ Sending my condolences to the Davies family. I was honored to manage and sell the Davies home in Colorado. I met Judy over 10 years ago and she was a very kind person who expressed lots of love and excitement for her daughters and grandchildren. She loved her new home in Georgia. Jim & Judy were always very kind to me and my favorite people to work with. I will be praying for your family and am truly sorry for your loss. Love,
