“Homer, I have no idea if you will get this message or not since Julie's death was nearly 5 years ago! Her mother was my first cousin and I was so proud to have living relatives although I was a poor correspondent and did not keep in touch except through Christmas cards. My card this year was returned with the message "Moved, left no forwarding address". Today I googled to find you and learned of Julie's death in 2007. I was shocked and saddened to say the least! I read the obituary and all the condolence notes and know that I would have loved knowing Julie better. She keep the bride's book at my wedding. PLease know that you and the boys are in our prayers! I hope all is well with you. I see that you have moved to Alabama. My oldest son, Tom, lives in Madison and is a military contractor for Northrup Grummen in Huntsville. Please be in touch if you are ever this way!
Sincerely, Frances Torrance

“ To Chief and Teresa and the girls and all the other family members, my deepest sympathy is with all of you at this time of loss. I first met Julie in 1970 when we were employed as "aides" at Calhoun County Elementary School. She was 1st grade, I was 2nd grade. We worked in the school system for many years. I still do. When I was secretary to Jimmie Timmons at K-5, I was across the hall from Julie's classroom and would stop in to chat when she was between classes. Throughout the years she has been a friend as well co-worker. She was kind enough to look at all the pictures of my children and grandchildren through the years and ooh and aah as only grandmothers know how to do. Even though I have not seen Julie since she retired, I never forgot about her and will remember her always as a kind, loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. May God keep his loving arms around each of you during this time of mourning.

“ Monday, we lost a very special person. We all know that the last thing Julie would want would be for anybody to be mournful. She was all about making everyone "feel good" even if she wasn't. I have thought of her continuously over the last day and all those thoughts have been with a smile and in some cases a down-right "belly laugh". Over the years I have adopted (no: stolen) some of her character traits. The way she said, "so cute" with those lips puckered: well, I took that years ago.
She was called away much too soon as we see it, but she has left all of you(us) with wonderful memories and a presence that will be with you for a lifetime.

“ Be assured you have my deepest sympathy and prayers. Julie was a beautiful person -- inside and outside. As we know in times like this, hope only comes through God and His Word and the capability of continuing comes slowly for us. Sharing those special memories and keeping close to our family members helped me. May God bless each of you during these difficult days.
