“ I will never forget the night that me, Amberly, and Katie decided it was a great idea to go riding in the middle of the night. We probably should have been more careful, and we probably should have waited until daylight but we went for it. This night Katie's four-wheeler flipped. I know it had to have hurt but she wanted to get back up and keep having a great time, so that's what we did. We assured her if she wanted to go then we would go. We told her we would absolutely understand but she was determined to keep having fun. Now it's a memory I will have forever. She was so tough and full of life and an absolute free spirit. If I could go back the only part I would change is I would have ridden on the four wheeler when it flipped instead of her. Then again, if it were me I most likely would have cried and went home but not katie, she was way stronger then me. I loved that about her 💕

“ This was the first time I was introduced to Katie. Julie said “let's go pick up katie! She's right down the road, I promise you'll like her” I remember thinking, “this girl is goofy and so sweet”.. ever since that night katie was a part of our weekend silliness and it honestly wouldn't have been the same without her.
