“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. I don't think that I know you, but I lost my four month old son Jace Feb 13th of this year. There are no words to express the grief of losing our children. I am so very sorry. I can't say that the pain goes away, but with the help of friends and family the days will get a little easier. If you should ever need to talk please do not hesitate to email me.

“ My heart goes out to you at this time of enormous grief and pain. My family will continue to keep you in prayer during the days that are to come. Words can not express our deep sympathy but Jesus can comfort you with His loving arms as no one else can. Know that He loves and cares deeply for you and shall never leave nor forsake you. Sincerely, Krista Godwin.

“ We are so sorry that your precious baby has gone to be with God. As parents, we do not expect to outlive our children. The death of a child robs us of a lifetime of enjoying a unique and irreplaceable piece of ourselves. Having a child fills a void in your heart that you never knew needed filling. We know nothing else will ever fill that void again, but we hope that our words will help your heart to heal.

“ *Dearest Russell,
I ran into you last Saturday down at Stocks. It was a honor to pray for you and please remember the words of Jesus, "I'll never leave you nor forsake you..." Be strong and encouraged. Somehow, someday God will see you both thru such a tragic time.
In deepest Sympathy,
Anne Norman*
