“ *Samantha, Leah, and Duane,
We can only imagine the pain and grief you are feeling as we are still trying to cope with loosing Kell. We think of you every day and we wish you peace. We will continue to pray for you. We will always be here to love and support you all. We are so lucky to have known Kell for the few short years that we did. He was like a brother to Greg and no one can ever take his place. We are proud that he was able to be a part of our wedding just a short time ago. Kell was a wonderful man, and we will never forget his giggle or his grin! He made the world a happier place and he will be greatly missed. With much love,
Greg and Mandi*

“ Samantha, I just want you to know that I think of you each day. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of Kell and a smile always appears on my face. He was such an incredible guy who touched each person he came accross. Kell will forever be in my heart. Samantha, Mr. Duane, Mrs. Leah, Mr. Sam and Mrs. Linda I pray for you each day that you will soon find comfort. Remember that I am always here for each of you. I love you Samantha! Love-Ashley

“ Sam,
I know i can never express in words to you how i feel about your loss, nor will i never know how you feel,but i hold you and Kell close to my heart each and every day. I will miss him and think of him daily. He was a blessing to all who knew him as you are also a blessing to those who know you. Although I did not know Kell for more than a couple of years, I now will know him forever.I love you dearly and I will cherish your friendship for a lifetime. I am always here for you. His bright smile will never disappear!

“ Leah and Duane, How shocked we were to hear of Kell's premature "homegoing". I can not imagine your pain nor the pain Samantha must be experiencing. Kell was always such a kind, gentle young man and was fun to be around. Not only do we have fond memories of him in youth activities at church, we remember his coming over a couple times for Brenda to check his blood pressure when he was in college. Please know that we have been praying for you this week and will continue to pray for you that God will grant you the peace that only He can give.

“ I do not know the family directly, but know of them through friends. I have heard many wonderful and good things about your family, and especially Kell. This was so very upsetting to me, as well as hundreds of others. I have a 22 year old son and a 16 year old daughter just driving and I wonder how do we survive when something like this happens to the ones that we love so dearly. I am quickly reminded by the Holy Spirit that God is the one who will bring comfort to you during this time. He will draw you close in His loving arms and He will take you through this one day at a time. Please know that along with me, there is a City who is thinking of you and your family at this time and praying God's peace and comfort in your lives. It sounds like Kell was a blessing to everyone who knew him. As I read from the above letters, I missed out on knowing someone truly wonderful; however, I will meet him in Heaven. May God Bless You, and May He Comfort You.

“ I will always remember Kell with smiles and laughter. Kell and I became good friends in college. He always had the sweetest smiling eyes and the most charismatic, witty sense of humor. He touched my life and many of my friends lives as a friend who modeled integrity, honesty, perseverance and diligence. He would give the shirt off his back for you and not even think twice. I also remember him to have a true relationship with God. I know he must have been a wonderful godly husband and the spiritual leader of his family. His wife Samantha and family are in my prayers.

“ I was shocked & saddened to hear of Kell's passing. I didn't hang out with Kell until he graduated & I was a junior at OHS. I want to share one of the fondest memories I have of him...I was working as a lifeguard during the summer & had problems with an older gentlemen calling & coming to the pool herassing me. Well, when Kell found not only did he call someone at the police dept. he would come to the pool when I was working at night, dragging "Taylor"(bryan)along with him sometimes. He would escort me to my car & make sure I got home safely. He would call me at home & say "is everything okay?". What a sweet & wonderful guy he was. Hold onto the memories & Sam, keep you faith- it will get you through. I will be praying for you & thinking about you. Love, Sam (Opelika)

“ This world has lost a wonderful man! Kell was one of my first friends when I began highschool, being in 9th grade and he is 12th. We were in the same youth group at 1st Bapt. and he was a one of a kind! I never had the pleasure of meeting his wife, as his life took him down a different path and mine did to another part of the country. I cannot say enough wonderful things about our friendship we shared and how often he was there for me. I just want you to know how sorry I am for your GREAT LOSS and you (Samantha) and your entire family, as well as Mrs. Leah and Mr. Duane, will all be in my constant prayers. I pray the Lord will hold you close and comfort you as only HE knows how to at this difficult time. Please accept my sincere condolences. I am truly a broken person today, knowing our world lost such a wonderful, fun, and beautiful human being. God be with all of you now and forever. Please always know how many many many people loved him and had their days brightened by Kell showing up at school with an incredible stand up comedy act, or wearing a pair of "jams" shorts from a decade earlier, all just for kicks and to make us laugh, even though we were laughing at him. He was a wonderful funny guy. I have missed not seeing him over the last years and my husband (Bubba Clemmons) and I commented in early summer that we would like to learn where Kell was living and get to see him again. God has a beautiful angel at his side tonight. You are all in my prayers. Please keep strong and comfort each other, keeping his deep love and memory alive!

“ I was a roommate of Samantha Pollock McCaskill's at Auburn for about 3years and during that time I got to know Kell very well. He was such a great guy, who loved life. He was so gentle and carried so much for Samantha. He once wrote to me when I had broken up with a boyfriend this: Love is often taken for granted: People don't realize what they have, especially while it's there but once it's gone, everyone says I should have taken the time to care you think you can't survive, when you really can: and if you try, you even might find true love again! I did find true love again and married him, but have kept this note from kell in my Bible close to me. I have not seen them for a couple of years, but remember them both so well. I hope that you give my deepest sympathy to Samantha and their families. Emily Forrester Stone

“ Duane & Leah,
We lived at the corner of Ashford & Weymouth and were friends with the Yanceys when Kell & our son were younger. My son Bryan said that what he remembers about Kell is that, although he was younger than Kell, Kell always treated him as a peer and not a younger brat, like many older boys did. He said Kell was always kind and nice to him & included him, even when Bryan was the newcomer in the neighborhood. From what I've heard from someone who knew him as an adult, he never changed and became a wonderful, sweet young man - a son to be proud of. I'm so sorry for your loss & pray for you to find peace. “ To Kell's family members and especially to Sam, my good tennis buddy - My deepest regards to you at this time. My heart goes out to each and every one of you. I had the privilege of meeting Kell and having a very pleasant conversation during a tennis match. I know he was well loved and thought of. He and Sam made a very special picture.

Sincerely,
Lisa
