“ I spent a lot of time in the Parker house growing up and have so many great memories of Stacey's big brother, Kenneth. They all bring a smile to my face because whenever he was around, there was always fun. He was always so nice and silly. He will be missed very much by lots of people.

“ Kenneth was a great guy. I hadn't seen him in years, but grew up behind him & his family and went to elementary school thru highschool with him & Stacey. He had a witty sense of humor and always had a smile on his face. Kenneth's passing was way too soon and he will dearly be missed. May God bless you and your families as you spend this time remembering the great soul he was...for God's finger touched him, and he slept.
