“ Sending lots of love and prayers to Keri’s family during this time. My heart hurts for her whole family especially the kids. Keri was truly 1 in a million. She had a heart bigger than anyone I know bringing nothing but love to all she interacted with. She was a genuine friend and never knew a stranger. Time and distance of me living in FL got away from us the past few years but if I were to call we would pick back up where we left off. Thanks for being my concert and road trip buddy. I’ll always cherish those memories until we meet again sweet friend. Godspeed 🙏❤️

Not sure where my long post went 🙏👧 I know you are laughing at me Keri I read it out loud like 3 times because of tears. Let’s see if I can summarize ... My heart and prayers are going out to the whole family for many months to yet come when the cards aren’t coming in and getting back to a new routine without Keri is still heart breaking. Sending so much love to her kids Doll who was her mini me. I know Hadley and Aiden aka 80 had their momma wrapped around their tiny fingers when I met them almost 8 yrs ago. Until we meet again sweet friend know you were loved and still are loved and I will cherish the road trip memories to concerts. Godspeed x❤️

“ This absolutely breaks my heart to even have to say these words...Keri (Parker) Knight, you were an amazing friend that I'll never forget. So many great memories! From Polecat baseball games to arguing over which Braves player we each called as "our husband!" I'll always remember the sweet memories of you at my baby shower and even coming to see baby Braxton and me in the hospital. Your huge heart, thoughtfulness and love were second to none. The only thing more beautiful than your outside, was who you were on the inside!

I hate how sometimes life gets in the way and we hadn't talked to each other in some time, but you were never far from my heart and mind.

You lit up not every room, but the world with your infectious laugh and huge smile. That light of yours will forever live on...as will the great memories. Thank you for the wonderful times and from an early age, opening up your home and sharing your life, mom and aunt with me!

I love and miss you, dear friend. I'm always praying for your family and your sweet "babies!"

Rest in paradise, until we meet again, beautiful, dear friend.
