“ *Kyle,
My best friend forever and always. You know you meant the world to me and loosing you is hard. You could always make me laugh. And today I had the courage to read through our text for the first time and I realized that no matter what was wrong, you always smiled. You are such an inspiration, and I was blessed to be your best friend and your girlfriend. I know one day I will see you again. I love you so much always and forever!

“ Kyle was one of the 1st people to explain NF to me 3years ago when my niece was born with spots and 4 months after her birth we knew why no one in my family has ever had it until now and needless to say panic set in how could anything be wrong with this perfect little angel that just came into our lives and you told me you must be special people for her to have been chosen to come into your lives!!! I will never ever forget that or you and although you and I never met you must have one amazing family cause they had you. Thank you for being in my life I'm jealous cause now heaven has our angel. You will always be missed until we meet again my dear friend

“ Lisa,

We are praying for you and your family during this time of loss. We were so fortunate to have met Kyle and your family when we were at Blue Skies a while back. Kyle was such a sweet young man and we know he will be greatly missed.

May God comfort you in the days and nights ahead. May the memories you have of Kyle stay with you until you meet again.

“ Lisa I am so sorry for your loss. I know you have heard the saying 'he is in a better place'. But from one mother to another, the best place a child can be is in his mother's arms. Stay strong Lisa and know that all goodbyes are not forever. You will see Kyle again, in due season.

Love you!
