

Kyle Patrick Galloway Obituary

June 14, 1984 - August 29, 2010

Kyle was born in Albany and was a member of Porterfield Memorial United Methodist Church. He attended both Lee County High and Deerfield-Windsor School where in the 4th grade he won the State Art Competition and received a year membership to Callaway Gardens. Kyle was always fascinated with art and exotic cars. In later years he and his father rebuilt and restored a muscle car, and he was so proud of his accomplishment. He was most recently employed at the Marine Corp. Logistics Base, and prior to that he worked with his parents in the family business, Berney's Tire Service. Kyle will be remembered most for his kind and gentle heart, always willing to lend a hand to a friend or someone in need. His tender spirit would not allow him to even turn an animal away that needed some care. Survivors include his parents, Bob and Brenda Galloway of Leesburg, grandmothers, Lula M. Galloway and Hilda Story both of Albany, numerous, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews, a host of friends who truly loved him and Audrey Wilson his very special friend. Kyle was preceded in death by his sister, Shannon Hurlock, uncle, Harry Galloway and his grandfathers, Lum Story and Robert Galloway.

“ Dear Brenda and Bob, My family and the family of Robert O. Lane want to tell you how sorry we are for your loss. No one can say, I know how you feel, because they are not you. Our wish is that you get to be able to face each new day better than the day before. Our prayers are with both of you and if there is anything we can do to help, please let us know.

“ There's so little anyone can do to help~ but I want you to know that you're in my thoughts and prayers. I will always remember Kyle as a gentle giant from his first grade class! He was taller than most of the kids, but he was always very kind to everyone!

“ Jesus said He would never leave or forsake us, and I know you are wondering where He is right now, but He is there. Call on Him and believe He hears you. We lost our grandson a few years back and we thought we would never recover, but Jesus was called on, and He came and consoled us until time began to heal. I know from the experience that you won't ever get over it, but you will get used to it. Your family is in our prayers. I am Julie's step brother. Peace of God loosed on your family!

“ My heart goes out to both of you. I was Kyle's friend. I moved to NC about a year ago and was not able to come down for the services. My mother attended in my absence. I am very sorry for your loss and wish I could have attended myself. May God bless both of you.

“ Brenda & Bob, Words can't express how sorry I am about Kyle. He had to be a wonderful and caring young man because that's the way he was brought up. The 2 of you are the kindest most humble people I've ever known and I'm so proud to call you friend. My grandmother always said that God in his infinite wisdom doesn't make mistakes but sometimes we mortals wonder. Love & Prayers Wanda “ INCONSOLABLE - that is what you are right now. I realize that there are no words, or enough hugs or phone calls that ease this pain. I am so deeply saddened that you are having to go through this. Kyle was a true treasure in life, and I will always smile as I remember so many wonderful moments he brought into my life. From a "stuttering" legend car to turning Jacob into a sprinkler, Kyle always brought laughter into everything (must have been his inner Patrick). He blessed many lives, and I am honored to call him family. Bob and Brenda - you are in my prayers, and I love you both.
