

Lawrence "Larry" Davis

December 6, 1942 - November 7, 2024

Mr. Lawrence "Larry" Davis, 81, of Albany died Thursday November 7, 2024 at his residence after a short illness.

Born in Ft. Wayne, IN, Mr. Davis was the son of Richard Davis and Catherine Shreve Davis Fiorini. He grew up in Southern California and enjoyed surfing and going to the Santa Anita Race Track with his stepdad. While in the Army, he met Carol in Huntsville, Alabama and they were married in spring of 1965. After the Army, he went back to college and worked with the Railroad which he very much enjoyed. He loved to tell stories of his Railroad days jumping from car to car. He retired as a Sales Manager at Woodmen of the World after 20 years of service. Mr. Davis was an avid Braves fan and enjoyed watching his Braves every chance he got.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Carol Davis; son, Rob Davis; sister, Barbara Davis; stepdad, Robert Fiorini who he loved and looked up to very much naming his son after him.

Survivors include his daughter, Michelle Davis of Summerville, SC; grandson, Daulton Davis of Albany, GA; and brother Rick Davis of Scottsdale, AZ
