“ *A special poeme: God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be,
so he put his arms around you,
and whispered "Come to me".
With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

“ Lil' Bro

We will always love you.

It is true that we have sustained a shock and a great loss. We know the greatest tribute to you would be to maintain the laughter, smiles, comedy, joys and happiness you represented and encouraged.

There was never a dull moment when you were around. You made a difference in so many lives. We realize that we must let you go but the memories will last forever. We will never forget you. You were a jewel and I am sure you will say, like Phillipians 1:21, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

Ruth, thank you for being the loving wife that you are. Thank you for taking care of our brother doing his illness. We love and hope to see you soon!

Love Always

“ Uncle L.C, although you are gone the laughter lives on. I remember when you tricked me into taking a few of your rabbits, and then acted surprised when I told you that they had multiplied to more than 20. You could not keep a straight face, but you offered to take a few and cook them. I remember when you gave my father that baby blue Volkswagen Beetle. He said that car was just like you, a little bug that made a lot of noise. I always found it ironic how an animal lover such as yourself could eat so much meat - rabbit chicken, turtle, and even Bambi. But when I suggested that you become a Vegetarian, you almost cursed me out. I was laughing then and I am smiling now. Uncle L.C.: Preach a sermon with Granddaddy, sing a duet with Aunt Lo, and dance the "broken chicken leg" with my Daddy for old time's sake. You may be gone, but the laughter lives on.
Always, your niece Sharon
