

Leatrice Hall Beard Obituary

March 2, 1923 - February 22, 2011

Leatrice was born on March 2, 1923 in Waycross, GA to the late Willie & Lillie Hall. She was a previous member of Byne Memorial and Sherwood Baptist Church until moving to Atlanta in 2003. She enjoyed listening to gospel music, writing poetry, reading, gardening, cooking and spending time with her family. She regularly visited the nursing homes and volunteered for meals on wheels. She helped out in Bible school, was a member of the WMU, was a substitute Sunday school teacher, and enjoyed giving devotions. She always extended a helping hand to anyone she met. She was a very devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She walked daily with the lord and wanted everyone to know when she died, "I have left my earthly home and gone to my eternal home." Leatrice was preceded in death by her husband Wallace Beard, daughter Marilyn Beard, sister Marguerite Livingston and dear friend Bernice Denson. She is survived by her daughter & son-in-law, Darlene & Tim Jones of Albany, two grandchildren, Julie Willby and Brandon Barfield of Atlanta, and a niece, Joy Delamar of Albany.

“ Darlene, I'm so sorry I missed your Mom's funeral. We usually pick up our Newspaper early morning but Thursday I did not get it until after lunch. At 1:20 I read the obituary and "uh-oh", it's too late now. My sympathy to you. Leatrice was in my Sun School class, a faithful member and one who showed care for others. She was very caring for the twins, Virginia and Elizabeth, and in transporting them for their needs. She was a good Bible student and enjoyed Christian TV and radio programs. She shared her poetry with me from time to time. May your good memories of her give you comfort. In Christ's love, Sylvia Lanier
