

Mr. LeRoy "Roy" Manry II Obituary

September 30, 1957 - July 23, 2013

Mr. Leroy "Roy" Cornelius Manry II, of Albany died peacefully at home on Tuesday July 23, 2013.

Funeral service will be held Saturday 10AM at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Rev. Lee Lowery and Rev. James Bullion will be officiating. Interment to follow in Crown Hill Cemetery

Though he had been ill for a number of years, he had a remarkably positive perspective on life. A graduate of Georgia State University, Roy worked in the travel industry for many years living in Dallas, Raleigh, Key West and Atlanta before returning to Albany. Roy traveled extensively, but he always loved coming back to "home" to Albany. He enjoyed his church and spending time with dear friends and his dogs who will miss him every day.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Lawrence and Marion Manry.

He is survived by his siblings Steve and Ellen Stark and Lem Manry, Sam and Barbara Manry.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding: in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths Straight."

Proverbs 3.5-6

In lieu of flowers please make donations to St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 212 N. Jefferson St, Albany, GA, 31701.

“ *Dear Manry Family,
No words can take away the sorrow you must feel. But hopefully, the cherished memories of your brother will help give you strength in the days ahead.*

We are so sorry for your loss.

*Love,
Bill & Deborah*

“ Sad to hear about Mr. Roy's passing. He was always a pleasant and positive guy when I worked with him 5-6 years ago. The kids at school were drawn to his fun personality. A great guy.

“ So sad to hear of my dear friend's passing. Always a bright spot in the crowd, laughter, sharing and making everyone want to walk in Roy's shoes - even if for a few minutes! And most importantly, always the true southern gentleman!!
