“ Uncle Lewis was one of my mom’s brothers I grew into my adulthood with! Always thinking of him growing up as young kid as Gomer Pyle, Uncle Lewis would always when we saw each other put me on a pedestal on how I raised my sick child who passed in 2010 from his transplanted kidney rejection! Always saying you should go back to school to be a nurse or doctor, I’m so proud that I listened not an MD but hospice nurse is my career path! I wished I could have lived close by to care for Uncle Lewis! He was the last of the Conner clan to leave this world seeing all my uncle and Aunts and my mom go before him! I’m sorry I didn’t get to see you before you went home to Jesus as you asked me to do! The funniest comment I’ve ever got asked! Karen do you think you can come see me before I die? It was many years before he actually passed but the way he said it was funny! I told him I would most definitely try! But as we all know life gets in our way lives get busy people need help and time goes by and then your loved ones are gone and that yes turns into heartbreak, but I did talk to him often and kept him posted on my life! I love you Uncle Lewis and Aunt Norma will see you when Jesus calls her home when her time is ready to join you! Until then look out for everyone and my sweet Derek

“ Top Conner was such a wonderful man- I met him at MCLB when I worked in DSSC. Norma, I remember meeting you at one of the many luncheons we had there. He spoke so lovingly of you and the family. The last time I saw Lew was at Albany Internal Medicine a few years ago in the waiting room - he had injured his foot in a bicycle accident. My deepest sympathy and prayers for you 🙏
