“ To Alice Rink: I have known and loved your mother for years, and don't know why, but never knew she was your mother. Perhaps you remember years ago my husband, Don, and "Rink" were in the military together, and we often ran into the two of you when you were living in Albany. Yesterday, I received a call about your mother passing away, perhaps I talked to you without knowing your name. Please know we think of the two of you often, and I will be especially keep you in my thoughts & prayers as I know these days will give you a heavy heart. Bland Cleesattle
