“ Lillian was my mother's (Jessie Davis) neighbor at 401 Flint and her roommate during mothers short stay at Palmyra Nursing Home. This could not have been a better arrangement for mother. I remember her stopping by the apt with her cheerful attitude. When mother was at the nursing home and facing the possibility of a leg amputee, Lillian was positive and encouraging for mother. She was always pleasant and optimistic - never complaining. When I offered to do anything that she needed me to do, she always said, "I'm okay and I have all I need." I am sorry for the pain I know her family is feeling. But know that in the short time I knew her, she was an angel.

“ Dear Janice -

You and yours are on our mind during this difficult time. While I never personally met your mother, I believe she was blessed to have you as her daughter. I know you will cherish memories of her in your heart always.

*In peace, light, hope and faith,
Carol*
