

Mrs. Linda Janice Raborn Norvell Obituary

September 6, 1951 - October 31, 2013

Linda Janice Raborn Norvell, 62, passed away in her home on October 31, 2013.

Her funeral service will be Saturday, November 2, 2013, 2 PM at Park Hill Cemetery in Columbus, GA. Mr. Tom Newman will officiate. The family will receive friends Friday 6 to 8 PM at Kimbrell-Stern.

Linda, known as Jan by her loved ones and friends, was born September 6, 1951, to the late Albert Ray Raborn, and Lena Alene Raborn in Greenville, Alabama. She graduated from Baker High School on June 3, 1969, and studied hairdressing but would devote her life to her family and the care of her children. On May 16, 1983, Jan wed Raymond Charles Norvell and they lived together in Albany, Georgia for twenty-four years.

As a loving mother and compassionate friend, Jan touched many lives and taught us all to remain positive no matter what difficulties we might face. She battled Stage IV ovarian cancer since 2010, never giving up hope and continuing to bring joy into the lives of others. Despite her illness she continued to radiate warmth, kindness, and sincerity, and she always let her family know how much she cherished them. She had a servant heart, enjoyed shopping, and loved flowers and gardening.

Jan will be dearly missed by her husband and four children, Hulet Lucas Norvell of Marietta, Georgia; Audrey Salena Coleman of Huntsville, Alabama; Clara Marie Norvell of Leesburg, Georgia and Charles Anthony Norvell of Albany, Georgia. She received much joy from her first grandson, Clark Myron Norvell and was greatly looking forward to welcoming two more grandchildren in the coming months. She is also survived by her mother Lena Raborn, her sister Julia Lynn Weaver of Phenix City, Alabama.

Those desiring please make memorials to Albany Community Hospice, 320 Foundation Lane, Albany, GA 31707.
