“ My deepest sympathies to the members of Lloyd's family. I worked with Lloyd at Miller (now MillerCoors) via phone and email. Though we never met I could tell by how he handled communicatations he was a wonderful, thoughtful and good gentleman. He will be missed by many, may you all find comfort in God's promises that the next life is oh so much better than this one and that you will again see Lloyd in that next life.

“ To the Graham family, you have our deepest sympathy on the loss of a great father and husband. Part of his legacy should be his sense of humor and his dedication in all that he did. We served as scout leaders together with Troop 115 and watched many boys learn and grow up. He was a brother Bobwhite in the Wood Badge tradition. Our thoughts and prayers of healing go out to everyone who grieves his passing especially his family.

“ I am sad to learn of Lloyd's passing. I remember his kindness and smiles from our days together in LATIN CLASS and sitting out front of the old bldg in Graves with our brown-bag lunches. Even all these years later my heart skipped a beat to read this news. My heartfelt sympathy to his family & his friends. He was a good man way back then, and from what I saw today in the paper, he continued that way all through his life. Peace to all of you, sent all the way from Charleston, SC.

“ An Irish Prayer for you and yours If tears could build a stairway, And memories were a lane, We would walk right up to Heaven And bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken. No time to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, And only God knows why. Our hearts still ache in sadness, And secret tears still flow. What it meant to lose you, No one will ever know. But know we know you want us To mourn for you no more, To remember all the happy times. Life still has much in store. Since you?ll never be forgotten We pledge to you today A hallowed place within our hearts Is where you?ll always stay.
