

L.M. James Obituary

February 20, 1924 - January 1, 2010

Loyce (L.M.) James, Sr., 85, of Albany, died Friday, January 1, 2010 following an illness. His funeral service will be 11 AM Tuesday at Kimbrell-Stern Funeral Directors, with interment to follow in Floral Memory Gardens. Rev. Neal Hager will officiate. The family will receive friends Monday, 6 to 8 PM at Kimbrell-Stern Funeral Directors. A native of Crisp County, Mr. James was a long time resident of Albany. He was a charter member of Beacon Baptist Church and he served as Sunday School Director. He retired from Southern Bell as a PBX Supervisor with more than 36 years of service and he was a bus driver for Riverview / Sherwood Christian Academy. The loves of his life were that of his family, his yard work and his garden. He served his country proudly as a member of the United States Army during WWII. He was preceded in death by his parents, Elmer and Sallie Ione Smoak James. He is survived by his wife: Paige Stringfellow James of Albany, his sons: Rusty James and his wife Debbie of Columbus, GA and L.M. James, Jr. of Rex, GA, his daughter: Deborah James Husbands and her husband Irwin of Jonesboro, GA; seven grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and close friends. To those desiring, memorial contributions may be made to Beacon Baptist Church, 5818 Newton Rd., Albany, GA 31721, or to a favorite charity.

“ Deborah and family,
David and I were so sorry to hear of the loss of your dad. it is so hard to loose a love one but the assurance that we will see them again in a glorified body with no pain or suffering is the promise and assurance of God.
Please know that our prayers and love are with you during this time and if we can do anything for you that may ease your pain please give us a call.
May God be every so close during these days to come.
In Christian Love,
David and Wanda

“ Dear Mrs. James:
Our hearts and saddened to learn of your significant loss of Brother Loyce. Our hearts are filled with fond memories of you both as we served Beacon as Music Director during 1968-69. You may remember that we rented your block house for a period. It was a blessing to us as you both were. May our Lord sustain you and hold you in the hollow of His hand.

“ To Rusty and family, I am saddened by the loss of your Dad. He was truly one of the greatest men in the world, he always had time for a hug and to talk, never failed to ask how everyone in my family was. He will be greatly missed! I will remember your family in my prayers each and every day. May God grant you peace and comfort in the days to come.
