“ Mom's journey on this earth ended exactly one month ago today. For us, it has been a long and tearful month of separation and adjustment. For Mom, it has been an awesome month of being in heaven and being free from pain and suffering. She has been reunited with our sister, Judy. She has had her first Mother's Day in heaven and next month will enjoy her first birthday there.

Daddy, we never once saw you waver in your commitment and devotion to Mom. Thank you. You are awesome! And now we pray for your daily strength and grace to face this new season in life. We love you!

We will always miss you, Mom. Thanks for your love and memories.

“ I stood onthe front porch, lost, lonely, and scared. My old tattered secondhand suitcase beside me kept all my wordly possessions. I had no idea what a treasure awaited me when mom opened the door and let me into her life. She welcomed me with open arms into her family, and her life. She showed me love, understanding, and acceptance. She allowed me to belong,and to learn to love. Mom was my role model,and she was perfect. I offer thanks and gratitude to God for allowing me to share in her life. I will miss you mom...

“ Dear Ben,

I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. My heart goes out to you and your family.

I'm a friend of Joanne's. You, Lois and I met far too many years ago when we both lived in CT, and I lived in Mansfield Depot.

I am praying for you and your family since the loss of your wife. As we know, only the Lord can help us through these tough times.

Sincerely,

Lynne (formerly Watson) Chick
