

Lois Battle Middleton Obituary

February 22, 1917 - February 22, 2009

Lois Battle Middleton, 92, of Albany, died Sunday, February 22, 2009, in Savannah, Georgia. Born February 22, 1917, in Mitchell County, Mrs. Middleton was a member of the First Baptist Church of Albany where she served as a Sunday School Teacher and was active with the Flower Ministry for many years. She was a member of the Women's Missionary Union, the Woman's Club of Albany, and the Daffodil Garden Club. She enjoyed playing bridge with a special group of ladies for more than fifty years. Early in her career, Mrs. Middleton was employed by Coats and Clarks and later, part-time, by Tom's Distributors. She was a loving Wife, Mother, and Home Maker. Her talents included cooking, crafts, and gardening and she loved sharing her creations with others. She was preceded in death by her husband Royce George Middleton. Survivors include two daughters, Sara Middleton Culbreth of Savannah and her husband Rickard Lamar Culbreth, and Nancy Middleton Kuhl, of Columbia, South Carolina, one sister, Elizabeth Battle Lee of Jacksonville, Florida, and four grandchildren, Allison Leigh Culbreth, Leslie Kuhl Morton and her husband Timothy Lyle Morton, Rickard Lamar Culbreth Jr., and Charles MacKinlay Kuhl II and his wife, Rachel Gregorie Kuhl. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests remembrances to the First Baptist Church Building Fund, The Next Step 145 Oakland Pkwy Leesburg, GA 31763.

“ *Dear Nancy,
Marilyn let me know about your mother, and I was very sorry to hear about her death. My mother died in 2005, and also made it into her nineties. I'll be thinking about you and Sara during this time of grief.
Love,
Frances Potter*

“ I'd meet "Aunt Lois and Uncle Royce" when in my neighborhood watering Ann's plants. Over the last years while checking when Ann was away, I'd wish that your folks could be there as before. They were such a sweet pair and true representatives of the Greatest Generation. In Dec. I saw "Aunt Lois" a moment at Morningside and she was still most gracious. Unable to attend visitation or funeral, I paid my respects at Crown Hill. She had the most beautiful floral tributes I may have ever seen. My sincerest sympathy.

“ Nancy and Sara Ann,
Judy called me tonight with the sad news of your mother's passing. What treasured friends your mother and father were to our family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.
