“ I am Barney and Louise Abbott's daughter and I remember Mr. Cochran very fondly. He was a soft spoken gentleman always, and a hard worker. I can see him in my mind with his broom cart all over town. I've wondered where he has been. My husband is Theo from Chris' Hotdogs and his family always got their brooms and brushed from Lonnie and he commented not long ago that they were the best, and what a nice man Lonnie was. My dad died in 1983 and mom in 1980. I'm so sorry you lost Lonnie.

“ I remember Mr. Cochran well although I never knew his name. My mom would buy items from him. What a wonderful legacy he has left and he has touched so many lives. God bless you all.
