

Lorene L. Hatcher Obituary

October 28, 1915 - November 13, 2007

Lorene Lillian Lemacks Hatcher, 92, died November 13, 2007 at Palmyra Medical Center following a brief illness. The 1 PM graveside service in the family plot, will be Thursday in the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church Cemetery in Mitchell County. Dr. William E. (Butch) Knight will officiate. Born October 28, 1915, she was the fifth child of John Wesley and Vesta Phelps Lemacks of the Sale City community of Mitchell County, Georgia. On December 22, 1935 she married Needham Carey Hatcher, son of Percy and Cleo Hatcher of southeast Dougherty County. Their four children are: Carenne Hatcher Miller of Tifton, Carey Hatcher, Jr. and his wife Betty of Albany, Richard Hatcher and his wife Carol of Watkinsville, and Donna Hatcher Castleberry and her husband Raymond of Conyers. There are ten grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. During their 65 years of marriage, Mrs. Hatcher was instrumental in running the family farm business with her husband who also taught school for many years. They were founding members of the East Dougherty Community Club. Mrs. Hatcher also was a charter (and life-long) member of the Momocco Home Demonstration Club, the name of which stood for the area around Moultrie, Mock, and Cordele Roads. The Hatchers were long-time members of the First Baptist Church of Albany, where Mrs. Hatcher served faithfully through her Sunday School Class and mission work. She also volunteered in the church nursery for a number of years. After enduring the 1994 flooding and re-building of their Radium Springs home, Mrs. Hatcher lived at Morningside of Albany in her later years. Mrs. Hatcher's family includes her brother William J. Lemacks of Pelham, sisters: Ruth Grogan of Pebble City and Ethel Wingate of Pelham. She was preceded in death by her brother James Lemacks and sisters Ruby Lemacks and Sylvesta Gay, all of Mitchell County. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Hatcher Memorial Education Scholarship Fund, Prince Avenue Christian School, 2201 Ruth Jackson Rd., Bogart, GA 30622.

“ My heartfelt sympathy is with each of you in the loss of your loved one. I have had the privilege of renewing my acquaintance with Miss Lorene at Morningside these past few years. I had taught school with Mr. Hatcher at AHS many years ago. Both of them were very special and I feel honored to have known them. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Careene, Carey, Richard, and Donna Sue;

Sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was an important part of my youth there in Dougherty County. I know you'll all miss her. Seems like only a few weeks back that Donna Sue and I were playing "hide-and-seek" around the chicken house out back. Life goes by too fast. It's good to have memories of people like all of you and your parents to help us stay grounded in what's good and right.

Take care and let us hear from you if time permits.

Fond memories.
