

Louise S. Bacon Obituary

April 18, 1914 - March 27, 2011

Louise S. Bacon 96, of Pineville, North Carolina passed away quietly on March 27, 2011. She was born in Hoxie, Arkansas on April 18, 1914, one of seven children born to Anna and Jeff Sanders. She is predeceased by four brothers and one sister. She is survived by her daughter, Phyllis B. Copley and her husband Bill of Pineville, North Carolina her brother Robert W. Sanders and his wife Betty of Williams Bay, Wisconsin, her grandson Chad W. Summerford of Charlotte, North Carolina as well as several nieces and nephews. Louise has lived with her daughter in Pineville for the last 10 years and attended the Church of Christ at Gold Hill Road in Fort Mill, South Carolina. Before moving to Pineville she lived 44 year in Albany, Georgia. Her husband, the late William A. Bacon, died there in 1985. She attended the Dawson Road Church of Christ, where she taught bible school for many years and served as coordinator for the emergency teams providing benevolent assistance to those in need. During World War II, while her husband was overseas, Louise worked as a secretary at the POW Camp in Como, Mississippi, which later became a federal prison. After the war she was secretary and bookkeeper for the businesses she and her husband owned. Louise was a great friend all who knew her, as well as a loving mother and grandmother. She will be missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Louise S. Bacon Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Phyllis, So sorry to learn of Mrs. Louise's death. She was a wonderful Christian lady and Maurice and I were honored to have known her. Take care and my prayers are with you and your precious family.

Becki Johnson - April 04, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Mrs. Bacon lived a long, good life. She was a devoted Christian and will now receive her eternal reward. I have great memories of spending the night there when Phyllis and I were roommates. She will be missed.

Anita Parrish Westberry - April 01, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Aunt Tease, as many knew her, was a remarkable lady who was always patient, loving and kind. She was a true blessing to all who had the privilege of knowing her. What a great gift I was given to be one of the lucky ones who got to know her!

Connie Duckworth Moore - March 30, 2011 at 12:00 AM