A native of Bladon Springs, AL, Mrs. Cook was born April 6, 1920 to the late Samuel Kervin and Lobelia Holcombe Miller. She has lived in Albany since 1970 where she was a member and Sunday school teacher at First United Methodist Church. She was a member of the Hawke Sunday School class and U.M.W. Mrs. Cook was a retired educator with 32 years of service in Lee, Telfair and Jeff Davis Counties as teacher. She graduated from Livingston College in Alabama, and then from Georgia Teachers College in Statesboro, GA now known as Georgia Southern University. Mrs. Cook learned to drive at the age of 45 and was widowed early in life at the age of 52. Following her husband's death in July of 1972 Mrs. Cook never remarried. She instead gained her strength from her faith and family. Mrs. Cook embraced the daunting task of raising a young family with her head held high and a smile on her face. Working as a teacher, each of her children received a college education and she always had a home for them to come to.

In her early years Mrs. Cook traveled by covered wagon on the farm to her most recent travels to Europe by Airplane. Her values in life were faith, family and education. These same values are perpetuated through her children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Cook loved her grandchildren, was an avid gardener (especially daylilies), awesome cook, die hard Brave's fan and huge animal lover. She will always be remembered as an affectionate person, never judgmental and never angered.

Mrs. Cook was preceded in death by her husband, Quitman Cook, her parents and seven brothers and sisters.

“ Hello Frank, Carolyn and Robert!

How it warms my heart to think about the matriarch & heart of the Cook family!

The Brown family- your friends during the McRae days- truly loved every opportunity we were blessed to share with the Cooks. What a special woman! The childhood memories shared with my late twin sister and also my brother and the Cook kids are treasured and unforgettable.

On behalf of Tommy, Christy and Cathy, we share and relate deeply in your loss. We lost our Mother in 2012. They , too, were friends- now looking over us all!

*God Bless Each of You and Yours!

“ Frank, Carolyn and Robert, I am so sorry that I will not be able to attend Louise's funeral. I am in the mountains for a few days rest. I loved Louise and thoroughly enjoyed working with her at Lee Co. Elementary School. She was a wonderful teacher and a good friend. I would so like to be there and to see each of you. My deepest sympathy to each one of you and your families. You have so many fond memories to keep reminding you of your Mom.
With love and deepest sympathy, Opal Cannon
