I will remember her laugh, smile and all the funny conversations we used to have, we had nicknames for each other, her name was Honeybun and she would call me sugar. On Saturday the last thing I remembered her telling me, "I love you and I thank you." She kissed and hugged me. I told her, "you're welcome and I love you too." I will miss her. RIH Honeybun.

“ Upon entering the fifth grade in September, 1949, I soon realized that school could be fun and exciting! Fortunately, I was able to maintain contact with her over the years as I moved around the country. I received a Christmas note from her almost every year, and her penmanship remained as firm as I remembered from the blackboard 69 years ago, What wonderful memories. God Bless!

Mrs. Louise was a bright light to our family, the Saba's. She was an adopted mother to our mother, Eloise Saba and adopted grandmother to the rest of the Saba Family. We know that our Mom, Eloise Saba, our Dad, Joe Saba, and Mrs. Louise are all in heaven right now, Praising our Lord and thanking the Lord they are now together forever. We pray for comfort for the family and send our love. God Bless! The Saba Family
