

Mrs. Lucille Blizzard Giovingo

October 21, 1927 - March 10, 2015

Lucille (Blizzard) Giovingo 87 years old, October 21, 1927, to March 10, 2015.

Born in Richlands, N.C., the daughter of Levi John Blizzard and Susan Jane (Coston) Blizzard. Lucille grew up in Richlands, North Carolina and was the oldest of nine children. She attended East Carolina Teachers College and worked part-time at Jacksonville, North Carolina where she met and married Salvador (Sal) Giovingo in November 1947. They moved to the West Coast when Sal was stationed in San Diego and later San Francisco, California. They returned to the East Coast where they were stationed in Fredricksburg and Portsmouth, Virginia; Jacksonville, North Carolina; Beverly, New Jersey and finally settled in Albany, Georgia where they raised their family of four children. She received her bachelor's degree from Georgia Southwestern College in Americus, Georgia and her Master's Degree from the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia. She taught 7th & 8th grade science at St. Teresa's School and River Road School in Albany Georgia. She left teaching and worked with her husband at their Century 21 Office in Albany, Georgia. In 2010 she moved to McLean, Virginia to be with her daughter. She continued her love for teaching by volunteering in the robotics, cyber security, and engineering programs at Chantilly Governor's STEM Academy in Chantilly Virginia. Lucille loved to travel and traveled to Germany, Italy, and France on three separate occasions. Her hobbies were sewing, gardening, cooking, and reading. She loved her Catholic faith, the opera, the theatre, the arts, her family and many friends. Lucille was preceded in death by her husband, Sal.

She is survived by her children; daughter Gina and Michael Giles of Virginia, son Jan and Sara Giovingo of Warner Robins, Georgia, son Sal and Tina Giovingo of Dawson, Georgia, and son Tony Giovingo and fiance Emi Williams of Oregon; thirteen grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.

A funeral Mass will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, March 16, at St. Teresa's Catholic Church in Albany, Georgia. The Rev. Ray Levreault will officiate. An interment will follow at 2:00 PM Andersonville National Cemetery at Andersonville, Georgia. The family will receive friends at St. Teresa's Catholic Church prior to Mass beginning at 10:00 AM.

You may sign the online guestbook and share your memories with the family of Lucille Giovingo by visiting Kimbrell-Stern's website at www.kimbrellstern.com.

“ *Sal and Tina:
So sorry that I did not know about your mom's death earlier.
Sal, I remember your sweet mom when I would call on your company as a banker
many years ago. She was always so nice and hospitable and loved her family so much.
Know my prayers and thoughts are with you and your family.*

“ Gina, Jan, Sal & Tony, I am truly saddened to hear of your great loss. I always knew your Mom to be a gracious and thoughtful woman and every bit a lady. I'm sure she is now visiting my parents, the way they used to do in the 60s and 70s. I'm also quite sure that God is putting her teaching skills to work in heaven. She was so good at that. I will remember her forever, as I know you all will. Please accept my condolences.

“ Jan, Sara, and family,
Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Mimi was such a beautiful person inside and out and a role model of a true Catholic/Christian woman. May the angels be singing her praises and may she be a positive voice for us all in Heaven. We are all better for having been blessed with her and your family.
Love you all,
