“ Uncle Lum was a, caring, cheerful gentleman. He loved life and was a real credit to the human race. From the time I was a little girl, I remember the picture of him in uniform on my grandmother's dresser. Beside it was a picture of Aunt Hilda, Uncle Lum, Brenda, Little Lum, and Martin. Keith came later. Uncle Lum was tall, handsome, and always smiling. He took my mother, father, and me to Atlanta for a few days vacation once. My father didn't see well enough to drive, and Mama didn't want to tackle the Atlanta traffic. Uncle Lum never complained, was so pleasant, and helped us make great memories. I heard my Aunt Joan tell him, "You loved to play golf, and baseball. You were great at everything you did."
