“ I taught at Magnolia Elementary School for a long time. I parked on the back side of the building near where Mabel was a school crossing guard. We became friends and loved our little short visits with each other. She always shared the best tomatoes with me, and I shared fruit occasionally with her. I told her that my husband Stan loved BLT sandwiches and I think she delighted in sharing those tomatoes with us. She was an angel here on this earth for sure. I retired a little over two years ago and did not know where she had gone. I would ride by and did not see her on "her little corner". We are so saddened by her death and want you to know how very special she was to us. She talked often about her sweet family and how she loved to spend time with her daughter. I have been sick and was not able to attend her service, but want you to be assured my love and prayers. Mary Jane and Stan
