“ To all the Knight family: It's been years, but it seems like yesterday a bunch of us were living on Lovers Lane Road. Had noticed cousin John Sikes mentioned the road too. Special times....sweet memories. I'm in Valdosta these days and I just received notice of Mr. Knight's passing on to Glory. Of course, we will all miss him, but isn't it wonderful knowing that we'll all soon be perfected in spirit and join him and all our other family members in heaven? What a comfort! Love to all, Fred

“ Mrs. Knight, Penny & Sharon,
Our families have been friends as long as I can remember. All the way back to Sharon's basketball games at Dougherty High. It's funny the things you remember. I remember the phone call from you when we all lived on Lovers Lane saying Mr. Knight wanted us boys to come down and see the new lawn mower with the headlights! So many memories. I remember the job site we were on as boys with Mr. Knight when Paul walked through the plate glass window. Mr. Knight enjoyed having us around. As I seen him with his grandboys, I thought like myself, these will be memories they will cherish. Though the years and miles have seperated us, I often thought of your faithfulness to him. May our God give you peace as He has given the victory to Mr. Knight. Our Love and Prayers! John “ *Gwen and family:

Almost every day I check the Albany Herald Obituaries on the internet. Hardly a day goes by that I don't see a friend or acquaintance listed. Today I was shocked to find my friend Mack was listed there. I will always remember him as one of my favorite people.
My condolences and prayers are with you and the family during this time. I wish that I could be there with you.
All the best

“ Penny,
You fought a good fight for your daddy. You came into Curves with tear stains on your cheeks many times and my thoughts were, "Her precious heart never gets a break...God please give her some emotional relief."
As much as I admired your dad, I am thankful that you can rest in knowing that he is with his bestfriend, Jesus. I admire your perseverance and faith in God.
I love you and your family,

“ Dear Gwen, Penny and family,
