

Madeline Anne Wildes Obituary

January 17, 2008 - August 20, 2008

Madeline Anne Wildes, infant daughter of Landon and Amanda Mathis Wildes died August 20, 2008 at Eggleston Children's Hospital of Emory. Her funeral service will be Saturday afternoon at one O'clock PM at First Baptist Church of Albany with interment in Crown Hill Cemetery. Dr. Butch Knight and Rev. Hugh Deloach officiating. The family will receive friends Friday from 6 to 8 PM at First Baptist Church. Born in Albany, she had a contagious smile and gorgeous blue eyes. Her sweet loving spirit would light up the room. She attended First Baptist Church and enjoyed her Sunday School friends. Madeline's legacy will live on because her organs are helping 8 other babies. She was preceded in death by her grandfather Carl William Mathis, Jr. Survivors include her parents Landon and Amanda Wildes, Albany; maternal grandmother, Melanie Snead Mathis, Americus; paternal grandparents Buddy and Carol Wildes, Albany; maternal great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Budington Snead, College Park, Mrs. Carl Mathis Sr., Cordele; paternal great grandmother Loyce Hallford, Albany; aunts and uncles, Laura and Mark Rogers, Hahira, Meredith and Randy Spielman, Raleigh, NC; Nathan, Mathis, Americus and one cousin Mallory Lane Rogers. In lieu of flowers please make memorials to the Pre-School Ministry at First Baptist Church, 145 Oakland Parkway, Leesburg, GA 31763 or Children's Miracle Network, Benefiting Children's Health, 1405 Clifton Road NE, Atlanta, GA 30322-1062.

“ We are heart broken for your loss. Maybe the words of the following song will offer you some comfort and strength.

God is faithful.

He will not forget his own.

God is faithful.

He'll never leave you all alone.

He's right beside you, waiting to guide you.

For the one who called you is faithful.

God is faithful, when the valley is so low.

God is faithful, wherever He leads you to go.

God is faithful.

He is always there when human eyes can't see, so aware of all your hurts and all your deepest needs.

God is faithful.

The FBC family grieves with you and may God give you the strength and comfort you need. The Holy Spirit utters prayers to God when all we can express are the groanings of our heart.

“ I can't tell you how sorry I am to have to see another family go through this. I lost my sweet baby boy Jace back in Feb. He was four months old. I don't think that I know the two of you, I think we know alot of the same people. Billy Chambers kept me up to date on your sweet little Madeline. She is so beautiful. I know my Jace met her at heavens gate as well as all the other angel babies up there..I just know there has got to be a special place there for them. I found that talking to other mothers that had lost their children really helped me. If you EVER need to talk or need anything at all, please do not hesitate to call me. Again, I am so sorry that you are having to face this. There is nothing in the world that can describe this pain and unless someone is going thru it, it is just un-imaginable. “ Landon & Amanda,
I read your guestbook and was amazed at the love and prayers being sent up on your behalf. People who didn't know you and those that did have been bathing you with all kinds of love and prayers. There were prayers for peace, comfort and strength, for God's loving arms to hold you, and His presence to be with you. Their hearts are broken for you, they know words won't take away the hurt you are feeling, but they love and care for you and if any of us could take the hurt for you, we would, which we can't but we know someone who can and will. I know from what I read that your faith is strong and you will hold on really tight and get thru the next days, weeks and months. “ Our family is deeply saddened by your loss. There are no words that we can express that will be able to ease the pain you all are feeling, but have faith, take comfort, and draw from the word of God. God will take you all in His loving care and surround you with His Angels during this time. Little Clark told me that the comfort of knowing when Jesus welcomed Madeline to her heavenly home - that he could just see Mr Willy standing there with Him, smiling with arms wide open. Talking and teaching her all about basketball. Take comfort in knowing that you will see her again. God bless you and keep you in His loving care.

“ Landon and Amanda I cannot begin to understand what you are going through, just know you are loved and thought of during this tough time in yu life. I came across the poem and wanted to share it with you...

Lullabies

Daddy please don`t look so sad,

Mommy please don`t cry.

*I am in the arms of Jesus
and He sings me lullabies.*

*Please do not try to question God,
don`t think He is unkind.*

*Don`t think He sent me to you and that
He changed His mind.*

You see, I am special and I`m needed up above.

*I`m the special child you gave Him,
the product of your love.*

I`ll always be there with you.

So watch the sky at night.

Find the brightest star that`s gleaming.

That`s my halo`s brilliant light.

So Daddy please don`t look so sad.

Mommy please don`t cry.

I am in the arms of Jesus.

And He sings me lullabies.

“ A Prayer from Madeline

*I could not tarry long with you,
I had somewhere to be.
I heard a gentle, loving voice
My Savior needed me.
He asked me to remind you
Although our time was brief,
The promise of tomorrow,
Will ease the pain of grief.
I know that you will think of me
And sometimes the tears will fall,
But I was proud and happy to heed the Savior's call.
I will always cherish
Those days I spent with you,
And I'll waiting for you
When your time on earth is through.
I could not tarry long with you
I had somewhere to be.
But one day we'll be together
For all eternity.*

“ Dear Family,
I would like to express my deep sympathy for you in this time of need. I understand there is nothing anyone can say or do to take away your pain, but the Holy Bible is very comforting as it directs our attention to our God Jehovah and his promises concerning the dead. At Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 we are told of a ressurection in which we can have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. May this strength our faith as we endure.
