“ We were very shocked at Penny's passing. We know how much she was looking forward to her granddaughter's birth. June gave her the yarn she was working with for Madison's blanket. June would love an opportunity to make her another blanket or cross stich bibs or a crib quilt if that would be okay. We were not aware she had moved in June to GA. Our last appt at Dr Wan's was before that and June talked to her last to make sure she had gotten the yarn she left with the doctor's staff next door. We would need a mailing address to send the blanket or bibs or crib quilt to your family.

If there is anything we can do besides pray for the family please let us know. She was a dear friend and always so helpful and kind to us all and had a wonderful sense of humor. June was just in the office yesterday and it seemed so strange not to see her there working away as usual.

Again please accept my husband Loren and my deepest sympathy and prayers. Your loss is heaven's gain and know that your Mom is looking out for you all and especially for her dear Madison - she would have been an AWESOME grandma!

In loving memory of dear Penny - love and hugs and prayers Loren and June

“ Penny, I regret that I did not get to see you holding our little granddaughter Madison Grace, but I know that you are in her presence and caring for her until she comes to spend some time with us. I hate to ask you to let go of her, but we are impatiently awaiting her arrival and I promise we will take good care of her and make sure she knows in this world how much you loved her and who you are. I will finish the sewing you started for her as soon as I get it. So rest peacefully precious angel until I see you again. I will miss you.

“ Penny and I were laughing, mischievous friends at AHS. She and Larry came to keep me distracted from the doldrums of business when I was in Las Vegas many years ago. I'll never forget our visit. Being miles apart did not keep us from being close in our hearts. I will be forever blessed to have had Penny in my life. She was a very kind and sweet spirit. Peace on girlfriend.
