

Malcolm Fantroy Fore Obituary

August 15, 1935 - May 20, 2011

Troy was born in Wilcox County Georgia and later moved with his family to Savannah, GA, a city he always said "makes me smile with my heart." There he became an Eagle Scout and was part of a gospel quartet, The Rhythmairs. Music continued to be his passion throughout his life. Troy was a popular disc jockey in the West Point area, hosting events and calling football games for many years. He also served in the Navy Reserve. Moving to Albany in 1963, he was a sales representative until he grew tired of traveling and being away from his family. He was employed by the City of Albany Communications Dept. until retirement. Troy was a dedicated and loyal Golden K Kiwanian serving as president as well as Lt. Governor for Division 3. He was the recipient of many Kiwanis awards and honors including the Georgia Outstanding Leader Award, the Lamar Stewart Memorial Award and the coveted George Hixon Fellowship Award. He was a communicant at St. Patrick's Episcopal Church, was an expert fisherman and derived much pleasure from the outdoors and being on the water. He also learned late in life how pets brought companionship and love and cared very deeply for his two cats and two dogs. Troy will be greatly missed by his family and friends. Mr Fore was preceded in death by his parents, James and Carrie Fore, two step children, Gwen Freeman Drury and Dru Freeman, two sisters and two brothers. Survivors include his wife, Patricia Fore of Albany, two sons, Jamie Fore (Renaë) of Gloucester, VA and Troy Fore of Albany, a daughter, Lisa Fore Sheffield (Scott) of Brevard, NC, son in law, John Meadors of Albany, one sister, Joyce Fore of Slidell, LA and 4 grandchildren.

“ My memories of Troy go back to the beginning of the Civic Center. He was a great guy and fun to work with. Then at 911 he was the only man among a group of females that loved to look after him. He will be missed. Pat Owens

“ To the Fore Family: I am so sorry to hear that you have lost your husband and father, Mr. Malcolm Fore. It is sad when we hear that others have lost a loved one and even more heart wrenching when it is someone dear and close to us. May kind words of comfort from others be a source of encouragement and prayer to our heavenly Father be a strengthening aid. I always find joy in knowing that the promise of the resurrection is sure to take place because Jesus stated at John 11:25 that he was the 'resurrection and the life.' How wonderful to know that he has been given the authority to resurrect and restore life to all those in the grave. (John 5:28,29) Imagine, being able to see our dear loved one again in a beautiful earth that will never be brought to ruin, a paradise that Jesus even stated would exist. (Luke 23:43) May you find comfort in knowing that our Creator, who cannot lie, will bring this about. (Titus 1:2)
