“ Malcolm was my first cousin. My Daddy was Lasco Parrish. Malcolm Mother was Daddy's sister and my Aunt Rethea. I am 10 years young than Malcolm. I'm saying all that so you will understand my story about your Daddy and Mother. I remember as a child being at Aunt Rethea's house and Malcolm and Lousie being there. Malcolm was home from the Navy. We were all standing out in the front yard on this windy day. Malcolm big sailor collar blew up on the back of his neck. Louise stood on her toes reached up and took the corners of that collar and pull it back down. As a child or pre teen I thought that was just about the sweetest thing I had ever seen. I still have that picture tucked away in my memories of the family that I love still.

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. As someone who has walked this road hold tight to your memories. Remember you are the ones out there now to keep the Parrish-Brunson name the wonderful name it has always been. Stay close to each other, don't lose touch with each other. You will always be family.
