“ To the Phillips Family:I am so sorry to see that your dear loved one has passed away. No doubt you are deeply grieved by your loss. Yet the scriptures encourage those who know of your loss to help family members cope. Because when you think of it, we all have lost loved ones in death and find comfort in knowing that others can help us cope. Our loving Father admonishes us to do this because he too is the God of comfort. (2Corinthians 1:3,4) By means of prayer to him, he can assist those who are mourning.His Word also provides us with hope. We have the wonderful gift of everlasting life made possible by means of his dear son, Jesus. This hope will allow all who have died to come back to life and enjoy life with their loved ones forever. (Romans 6:23) May you find comfort in knowing that death is temporary and the hope of everlasting life awaits all obedient mankind.

“ Carolyn and Doug, I'm so sorry to hear about Ms. Mamie. I will miss her "invitations always" to stay the night with her and Mom at Lee County. I will miss taking her chocolate to enjoy with Mom. She is well now and I know she will enjoy her "New Home" our Lord prepared for her. I know there will be a big void in your life, but I pray the Lord will give you peace and comfort during this time. Thank you also for your sharing your family with Mom and me.

“ We were so sorry to hear of Mrs. Phillips' passing when we went to the nursing home today. She always loved to say Mr. Douglas, our father, was her sweetie. We enjoyed her company and will miss her very much. We also were blessed to get to meet you and have your fellowship at several dinners at the nursing home. May you experience God's peace in very real ways during this tough time. God bless you.

“G-ma Sue, We are sure gonna miss you. I have so many fond memories of you. I always loved going to your place on the creek and visiting with you. You loved your flowers so much on your little piece of heaven on the creek. Though, the last 7 years and 7 days of your life were not spent at your home on the creek, my memory of you will always be as you were before your having to leave your home. You loved your family first and never let anyone have any doubt how much your family meant to you. We loved you too. Very much!! You shared a love with my mother for flowers. You kept your flowers so beautiful. And, you made the best lemonade on earth. Oh, and don't worry, the memory I have of you cooking those chitlins will NEVER escape my mind. I will think of you often and miss you always. I love you g-ma Sue. Love, Ben
