“ I was so blessed to be a part of the care team for Ms. Lewis for the past year and a half. She always brightened my day with her smile every time I walked in her room. It let me know that she always recognized me. My heart will always be filled with love for her and her family.

“ I just loved Mrs. Margie. She was such a sweet lady and mother. I grew up with her daughter Carla so I was around Mrs. Margie a lot, in and out of church. A Great Christian Lady. Never heard say anything negative about anyone. She was also a teacher to me at church. I loved her and her whole family. I know she is in heaven as a proud Mother of her girls and family. Love you. ❤️

“ Many memories with Mr. Carl and Miss Margie for many years growing up whether sleepovers, trips to quartet concerts or many times at church—all so sweet and memories that even today so many years later are so special to me. Miss Margie was one of the sweetest ladies that I have known. I know she will be missed but I also know that tonight she sits at the feet of Jesus and finally 17 years later she is with Mr. Carl!!! I pray for peace and comfort and so many wonderful memories to flood your hearts in the days ahead to bring a smile to your faces. We love you Angie, Janet and Carla—you hold a special place in our hearts!!!!
