“ Margaret became a dear friend after I joined the Azalea garden club. She was a caring, intelligent, dedicated, sociely and personally involved person. She worked to make the world, and the people in it, a better place. I am very glad I knew her. My sincere sympathy to her family.

“ Margaret was a regular rider along with Nell and Sarah to many church functions. We didn't have to ask, she was ready and willing to go. We enjoyed knowing and being with her all of those years. We will miss her but know she is in the Father's house perfectly happy with Him
