

Marguerite Cammack Putnal

October 27, 1932 - October 26, 2023

Marguerite Cammack Putnal, 90, of Albany passed away at the Willson Hospice House, October 26, 2023, surrounded by her loving family. Marguerite was born in Moulton, AL on October 27, 1932, to the late Frances McLemore Cammack and Edward Lomax Cammack. The youngest of three children. She graduated from Lawrence County High School in 1951 and went on to graduate from Florence State Teachers College, now known as University of North Alabama, with a degree in education.

Marguerite met her late husband, Joedy David Putnal, Sr. in Mayo, FL where she taught home economics at Lafayette High School. They married in 1956 and later moved to Albany where they raised their family. She was a devoted wife, a dedicated and loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and teacher. For many years she was a librarian at Sylvester Road Elementary School where she shared her passion for books and instilled the importance and love of reading in her students.

Marguerite was a devout Christian and a member of Beattie Road Church of Christ where she taught children's Sunday School for many years.

Marguerite enjoyed her many hobbies. As a child, she developed a lifelong interest in art, which can easily be seen in her many drawings, paintings, and stained-glass creations. She also loved gardening and was especially proud of her beautiful hydrangeas.

Survivors include her children, Anita Putnal Lindsey (Jimmy) of Albany, Joedy David Putnal, Jr. of Atlanta and Pamela Putnal Roberts (David) of Leesburg; 5 grandchildren, Jessica Roberts Glow, Emily Roberts Miller, Laura Lindsey Arnone, Isabel Putnal and Margaret Putnal; and 6 great grandchildren, Abby, Jack and John Glow, Harper and Carter Miller, and Hadley Arnone.

Marguerite is also survived by her sister, Jeanette Cammack Simpson. She was preceded in death by her sister, Isabelle Cammack.

A private service will be held at a later date to honor her memory and celebrate her life. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of your choice or to the American Lung Association.

Tribute Wall

MW

“ As a student at Sylvester Road, Ms. Putnal was always one of the best parts of school. I looked forward to library day every week. Listening to her read our story, she could just put you at ease. Drawing you into the story she told. Her gentle and kind spirit was such a blessing to all. That was a long time ago, but, I'll never forget her. May God comfort you all, her Family and Friends.

Melissa Wilson - November 01, 2023 at 07:40 AM