“ I remember the first day that I met Marie. I was "warned" that she had a very large dog and he was very friendly. After my first visit, it seemed as if we had known each other forever. I saw her several times a week for a few months, even some "extra" visits here and there. Our friendship grew stronger every day. At this point, she knew everything about me and I also knew a lot about her as well. It was very close to the holidays and I couldn't imagine being alone during this time. On Christmas Eve of 2009, Marie Arnold became part of my family. She loved my 3 children and my husband. We all loved her as well. Marie empowered me to stand up for what I believe in and to never let anyone give me the run around. She also admired my goals in life and said that I was the best nurse that she had ever had. I spoke with her on many occasions about "family". She had a special bond with my son Matt; they shared a birthday. We talked on the phone almost everyday and I would shop for her at times. My heart was broken today when I learned of her passing. She was a great friend. She will be missed by my entire extended family. Rest in peace Marie. You are with the angels now with no worries. I will love you always. Thanks for being part of my life.

“ Marie, I'll miss our e-mail and Facebook chats and I'm so sorry you had to leave us way too soon. But I know all your dogs were waiting for you at the Rainbow Bridge and that y'all had a glorious reunion. You were a good friend and truly were "Magnificent Marie". May you finally rest in peace. Love you. Sara “ Marie and I attended and graduated AHS together but with our class membership so large, we did not know one another until about 2 years ago. At this time, we conversed via email.

Marie was a wonderful friend, she confided in me several good bits of what her life was like. At one time, I had a great niece of mine going to help Marie in her home with things she needed help with. I was never able to get to Albany to visit with Marie and I really regret that.

Indeed, she loved her dogs. She and I would talk about our pets in our emails.

Marie, to me, was a very lonely person and wanted to be loved.

Prayerfully, she is at peace now and without her pains that filled her everyday.

I say goodbye to Marie, and thanks for her accepting me as a "friend".
