

Marion D. Manry Obituary

January 16, 1925 - June 1, 2011

Marion Dyke Manry passed away on, Wednesday, June 1, 2011. Born Marion Seville Dyke January 16, 1925 in Moultrie, Mrs. Manry was known for her beauty. She was drum majorette at Moultrie High School before attending Georgia State Women's College and the University of Georgia. After college she taught school in Cairo and was a Hattie Carnegie model in New York City for a short time. She returned to Georgia where she met and married Lawrence Edward Manry in 1949. She was preceded in death by her husband Lawrence Manry, her father Eugene Dyke of Moultrie, her mother Thelma Dyke of Albany and brother Col. Sam Dyke of Cairo. She is survived by children Ellen and Stevan Stark of Chapel Hill, NC, Lem Manry of Columbus, Roy Manry of Albany and Sam and Barbara Manry of Havana, FL and grandchildren Leah and BJ Dekreek and great-granddaughters Ella and Emery Dekreek all of Atlanta. Over the years Mrs. Manry was involved in numerous charitable activities, but she was always happiest in the company of her family and dearest friends. "For where your treasure is, so will your heart be also." Matthew 6:21

“ I'm sorry to hear about the death of Mrs. Manry. I want to give the friends and family my condolences. I know that losing someone we love in death is a hard thing to go through. A good thought to keep in mind is 2 Corinthians 1:3. I tells us that God is the "God of all comfort". I hope that thought is a comfort to you durning this hard time.
