“ Uncle Kenneth, Terry, Bonnie and Sharon,

It was sad news I got Friday morning, on the passing of Aunt Margie. I am sorry for your loss during Mother's Day weekend and as you know, she is celebrating Mother's Day with the Creator of the Universe along with all of our family who have gone before: Granddad, Grandma, Uncle Leron, my dad Fred and others. They are all together getting our fish fry ready in Heaven.

This is a crazy memory, but one that i have to share. I remember that Amana Radarrange, the new microwave, was one of her cool kitchen toys and I loved to look at it when I came over. She showed me how it boiled water quickly and how it cooked an egg in a cup. That was amazing to a young boy hoping of flying cars when he grew up.

Again please accept my families condolences.
