“ I just wanted to give you my condolences for the lost of your loved one. We have all lost a loved one in death and during this trivial time it can be very hard to endure. One way that I was able to find comfort was through God's word the Bible. God makes a promise to us that at Revelation 21:4 no more pain, sickness, or death will be anymore. God is not a lie so we know that his promise will come true for all. If you have anymore questions please go to www.watchtower.org for more information.

“ Ms Marjorie was a very special lady that I enjoyed knowing, talking with, as well as line dancing beside her each week. I will especially miss her very much as we continue to do line dancing with out her, now. She can best be described in the following maner/manner, "class needs no introduction".

“ Ron and Mary ... I send you my deepest heartfelt condolences at the passing of your mother...that indefatigable Mrs. Owens as I called her. She was a wonderful woman I always enjoyed talking to at the temple and other special events we happened to be at together. I will miss seeing her and the temple will be at a loss without her. All my love and prayers to you and your family-- I'm sorry I could not be there for her funeral but that's the way my life is now--the gypsy doctor. s

We felt privileged to have had several opportunities to spend time with her and know she was a wonderful, loving, kind, hardworking person.
