“ I went to school with Sherri and when I visited Albany, I would try to catch up with her. I was saddened to hear about the loss of your mother. My niece, Tonya, was one of her nurses at the cancer center and didn't know that she was Sherri's mom. May God bless and comfort all of you during this difficult time. Beverly Tompkins Hoover

“ Jimmy:

My sincere condolences for your loss, and for Martha's. May she find peace and comfort in His arms.

I know too well that the battle has been long and hard. God give you the strength to go on, and the comfort to know that Martha is resting in His arms now.
