

Marvin Wendell Conner III Obituary

December 27, 1961 - September 18, 2009

Trey was born December 27, 1961 in Montgomery, AL. He moved to Albany, GA with his family in 1970. Trey graduated from John Patterson State Technical College in Montgomery, AL in 1989. He was certified in refrigeration, HVAC, and small appliance repair. Trey was an avid reader, artist, comic book collector, bicycle enthusiast and outdoorsman, and enjoyed working crossword puzzles. Trey trained in boxing and competed in the "Tough Man" Contests. Trey believed in the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior and loved his family and friends. He especially loved his Malamutes. In the absence of snow, he still trained these sled-pulling dogs with a skateboard. Try returned to Albany, GA in 2006. Survivors include his parents, Marvin Wendell "Wink" Conner and Lynda Yeackle Conner of Cobb, GA; his sister and brother-in-law, Stephen C. and Karen Conner Allen of Dawson, GA; his brother and sister-in-law, Troy F. and Tricia Gallagher Conner of Uvalde, TX; two nephews, Thomas and Taylor Allen of Dawson, GA.
