“ I had not seen Mary Sue since high school but have very fond memories of her. She was a friend to me and I admired her so. She was so pretty and incredibly smart. She was never "wishy-washy". You always knew where you stood with her. We had many laughs together and I so wish we had stayed in touch. Sister Doris is a wonderful girl/woman, too. I know your hearts are hurting now but please try to find comfort in the fact that she is with our Father in Heaven. She has always had a beautiful smile, but I bet it's even more beautiful now.

“ I was blessed with the honor of knowing Sue in the early 1970's. I hold in my mind and heart so many wonderful memories. The first time I met Sue, my first thought was, how pretty! As our friendship progressed, I began to admire all the beautiful qualities God blessed her with. I love you and will miss you my friend, and if what they say about cleanliness being next to Godliness is true, then I have no doubt that you are safe in God's strong loving arms.
