“ Miss Mary was very dear to my mother-in-law, Vi Lamb. Mary and Vi became fast friends at the Senior Center. I was so thankful for Mary's friendship as Vi had moved to Albany only at the age of 85. Mary was vital in Vi's adjustment to living here. We are grieved by her passing. Vi would like for you to know that Mary has been and continues to be missed by her Senior Center family.

“ My "Ma" grounded me. Her simple, unquestioning love for us, gave our family something to hold on to as we moved through life. I know I can speak for all of her many, many children that what she gave does not leave with her passing. She is a part of who we are, forever.
