“ Aunt Mary Ann was a giving soul. After my mom, Louise had cancer surgery, she came out and took care of her for many weeks. She was so kind and took such good care of Mom that we were so sad to see her leave. We know we will see Aunt Mary Ann again. She is having a wonderful reunion with all 17 of her brothers, sisters and her Savior. And for that, we are all grateful!

“ I use to work with Mary Ann at the base. She was the kindest lady I'd ever met. So humble. She worked hard and came to work everyday. I loved her and how she just loved life. Praying for the family as I know they certainly will miss their mom. What a special lady she was. God bless. Vickie Barker
