“ Dear David, Lisa and everyone else who loved Maxine and may be reading this now. I loved her too, and know how devoted she was to Larry. Larry was my first cousin. His mother, Agnes, and my dad, Woodrow Hester, were sister and brother, and though I am sure you probably don't remember me or my brother, Jack, Larry was someone special, especially to me. I know you will all miss her dearly as will I. However, I can rest in the assurance that Maxine is in good hands, and by now is holding hands with her first and only love, your dad. May God bless each of you and hold you all close during this time of sadness.
